1. Which former U.S. president's political philosophy best matches your own?: Ronald Reagan

Comments - Question 1:

2. Which U.S. Supreme Court Justice's legal philosophy best matches your own?: the late Justice Scalia

Comments - Question 2:

3. Rate your judicial philosophy regarding the U.S. Constitution on a scale of 1-10 with "living/evolving document" being 1 and "strict constructionist" being a 10:: 10

Comments - Question 3:

4. In Roe v. Wade, 410 U.S. 113 (1973), the U.S. Supreme Court recognized a "right to privacy" under the Constitution that includes abortion. The Constitution does not include this right.: Agree

Comments - Question 4: This answer is my personal opinion. As a judge I will be fair and impartial at all times and always follow the law and Constitution

5. Judges should refrain from "legislating from the bench." The translation of public policy into law and the creation, extension, modification or limitation of citizens' rights (and governmental authority) are properly within the province of the legislative, not judicial, branch of government.: Agree

Comments - Question 5:

6. An unborn child is biologically human at every stage of his or her biological development, beginning at fertilization.:

Comments - Question 6: I cannot answer this question as I believe it would violate judicial ethics prohibiting on commenting on something that may come before me. I can state that I have prosecuted someone for aggravated vehicular homicide for killing an 8 week old unborn baby.

7. The law should be applied to pro-life demonstrators in the same manner as it is applied to environmental, anti-war and labor demonstrators.: Agree

Comments - Question 7:

8. There is no provision in the current Ohio Constitution intended to require the use of public funds for abortion.:

Comments - Question 8: I am not aware of any provision but cannot give an absolute answer at this time.

9. The judiciary does not possess the authority to expand the definition of marriage to include anything but one man and one woman.:

Comments - Question 9: I cannot answer this question as I believe it would violate judicial ethics prohibiting on commenting on something that may come before me. I also believe the law as written by the legislature is what stands, unless it violates the Constitution.

10. The law protects individuals' and organizations' rights of conscience from being forced to participate in abortion or other practices contrary to their moral or religious convictions.:

Comments - Question 10: I cannot answer this question as I believe it would violate judicial ethics prohibiting on commenting on something that may come before me.

11. Laws, regulations, or ordinances that restrict individuals' and organizations' rights of conscience are unconstitutional.:

Comments - Question 11: I cannot answer this question as I believe it would violate judicial ethics prohibiting on commenting on something that may come before me.

12. List all organizations to which you have contributed time or money in the past four years.:
