Comment - Question 9:

10. Do you support the union of one man and one woman as the only definition of marriage that should be legally recognized at all levels of government?:

Comment - Question 10: I take the same position as the Pope: "Who am I to judge." This isn't a Right to Life question, is it?

11. Will you oppose any law or regulation that infringes upon an individual's or organization's rights of conscience by forcing participation in abortion or other immoral practices?:

Comment - Question 11: If you stop at the word abortion, my answer is Yes. Defining immoral practices seems to roam into the area of religion. This would seem contrary to the First Amendment's establishment of Religion clause.

12. Would you work actively to revoke any such laws, regulations or ordinances that infringe upon an individual's or organization's rights of conscience?: YES

Comment - Question 12:

13. List all organizations to which you have contributed time or money in the past four years.: I find this question very offensive and an invasion of my privacy.

To this, I would add that any politician that votes against education, a living wage and healthcare for the weak and less fortunate is participating in a war of the powerful against the weak. Anyone who doesn't support sensible gun control and universal background checks is a disgrace to the meaning of Pro-life.
