2018 Annual Report
Cincinnati Right to Life Educational Foundation, Inc.

45 years working for life
Scope and Purpose

Founded in 1973, the Cincinnati Right to Life Educational Foundation, Inc. promotes, through education, respect for the sanctity of innocent human life from fertilization to natural death.*

Educational Foundation goals include:
- Alerting the public to bioethical issues such as abortion, human experimentation, assisted suicide, and euthanasia
- Improving personal and social awareness and responsibility for all innocent human life
- Promoting care and assistance for mothers and their children, born and unborn; the disabled; the elderly; and the dying
- Encouraging pro-life research and education on life issues

To achieve these goals, the Educational Foundation offers a variety of programs, including:
- Publishing a print news bulletin
- Encouraging support for pregnant women and their babies
- Distributing pro-life videos, books, and other printed material
- Exhibiting with a targeted pro-life message and related materials
- Supporting and partnering with other pro-life organizations’ educational efforts
- Publicizing life issues through pro-life advertising, videos, social media, and more
- Supplying and posting pro-life billboards and other displays

The Cincinnati Right to Life Educational Foundation, Inc., operates within the Internal Revenue Service guidelines for a 501(c)3 tax-exempt, non-profit organization. Donations to the Educational Foundation are tax-deductible.

* Working with Cincinnati Right to Life Educational Foundation is the 501(c)4 legislative arm, Right to Life of Greater Cincinnati, Inc., as well as the Cincinnati Right to Life Political Action Committee.
In 2018, we witnessed significant advancements in the pro-life cause. States were permitted to defund Planned Parenthood of Medicaid funding; pro-life judges were appointed across the country; and the Protect Life Rule was instated to cut taxpayer funding under Title X of any program or facility where abortion is performed, supported, or referred for as a method of family planning.

But perhaps what we may remember most about 2018 is Justice Brett Kavanaugh’s appointment to the United States Supreme Court. While he has not ruled on any official abortion cases, the Justice’s record as a constitutional conservative bodes well for our movement. Throughout the hearings prior to Justice Kavanugh’s appointment, the pro-abortion lobby falsely accused him, slandered his name, and did everything in their power to discredit him. Why? Because they are terrified that Roe v. Wade will ultimately be overturned.

It is difficult to predict exactly how it will play out in the courts, but people on both sides of the aisle are realistically planning for a time when abortion is no longer protected by the Supreme Court. At that point, however, the legality of abortion will then be debated at the state level. The war is far from over, but we are on the cusp of a critical battle.

The Cincinnati Right to Life Educational Foundation carries the torch for life by educating the general public on the true meaning of life and its dignity. We publish newsletters, host radio segments, give frequent lectures, and sort through information to share the truth with the pro-life community. We are ever committed to ending abortion, preventing euthanasia, and building a true culture of life in Southwestern Ohio and beyond.

I am humbled by your constant support and dedication through your donations, prayers, and partnership. May God continue to guide us all in our pursuit of truth and life.
In May of 2018, I joined Cincinnati Right to Life as the new Executive Director, taking over for Paula Westwood who served our organization faithfully for 15 years. Under Paula’s leadership, Cincinnati Right to Life has thrived. Picking up where Paula left off, we continue to move forward in our goal to end abortion and prevent euthanasia in our region.

The Cincinnati Right to Life Educational Foundation, among other things, serves the pro-life community by telling the truth at a time when simple facts and information are often distorted. Through our bulletins and letters, we are a primary source of news and information for thousands of people in the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky area and beyond.

Furthermore, our organization was highly instrumental in efforts that shut down Martin Haskell’s abortion facility in Sharonville, Ohio in February 2018. Abortionist Martin Haskell championed the gruesome late-term partial birth abortion procedure, and is responsible for the deaths of thousands of babies here in Cincinnati. We continue to partner with Dayton Right to Life to shut down his one remaining facility in Kettering.

In the United States, Planned Parenthood alone aborts over 320,000 babies a year. In Ohio over 20,000 babies still die annually by abortion. Among other things, Cincinnati Right to Life monitors our local Planned Parenthood which is the only surgical abortion facility in Hamilton County servicing the tri-state. Hamilton County still has the third highest county abortion total in the state—in 2017 ending the lives of 3,225 babies.

Jennifer Fulwiler, pro-life convert and best-selling author, reminded us at our 2018 Banquet for Life that life is messy, but the culture of life is worth living. It is God’s design for us to accept and embrace all human life as a gift.

Thank you for supporting Cincinnati Right to Life in our pursuit of a true culture of life!

Besides the day-to-day operations and outreach of the Educational Foundation, the following programs and events were conducted during 2018.

40 Days for Life

Cincinnati Right to Life continues to serve as financial and publicity support for the Cincinnati 40 Days for Life prayer campaigns which bring hundreds of people from the tri-state area to pray in front of Planned Parenthood’s abortion headquarters on Auburn Avenue. Board member and Secretary, Mary Clark, serves as the 40 Days for Life Cincinnati Campaign Leader.

Abortion Accurate Information Hotline

Via our hotline plugged into OptionLine, we continue to offer a help resource for women in crisis, including referrals to area pregnancy help centers.

Print Advertising

The Abortion Accurate Information hotline number is listed in the Cincinnati Bell phone directories. Ads with pro-life messages appeared in seasonal editions of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati Catholic Telegraph, the Diocese of Covington Messenger, UC Student Planner, plus programs for several non-profit youth and pro-life organizational events.

Sharonville Abortion Facility Closed

For decades, citizens and public officials continued legal and political means, pregnancy outreach, and prayer vigils against Martin Haskell’s Women’s Med Center (WMC) that moved from Clifton to Sharonville in 2010. Abortionist Martin Haskell championed the gruesome late-term partial birth abortion procedure. Upon Haskell’s reported retirement in February 2018, the location in Sharonville closed. Thank you to all involved in any way to bring about this end!

_Haskell’s Dayton WMC remains open with much abortion business._
Highlights

Billboards
With the help of a grant from the Archdiocese of Cincinnati Respect Life Fund, four billboard designs were posted in various Cincinnati locations throughout the year. When possible, posting locations are chosen according to statistics for areas with the highest abortion rates and/or areas with high traffic visibility.

The Pro-Life Billboard Campaign continues to encourage those supportive of the Sanctity of Life and also reaches those with the pro-life truth that we cannot reach otherwise. The billboards’ messages and images quickly offer hope and help to those who may be considering abortion or suffering from past abortion decisions.

Billboard information includes the Heartbeat International OptionLine phone and text help numbers, which connect a caller to the pregnancy care center nearest them anywhere in the country.

Art files for all Cincinnati Right to Life billboards are made available for purchase by other pro-life organizations interested in posting our designs elsewhere in the country.

Cemetery of the Innocents
For years the Cemetery of the Innocents memorial displays of white crosses have been a poignant reminder of abortion’s toll on this country and its people. Cincinnati Right to Life has a set of crosses to make these displays available to more churches, schools, and organizations. Besides the crosses, signage explains that the display represents children aborted daily, and provides OptionLine help information for those considering an abortion or suffering from a past decision.

Educational Materials
We maintain a supply closet, open to visitors for their informational needs. Materials are provided to sidewalk counselors, church Respect Life groups, festival workers, individuals, and students. We also post information on our website, identifying updated materials freely available.
Highlights

Exhibiting
To increase pro-life awareness, we take our exhibit booth to various venues and adapt information as appropriate for specific audiences. Our display includes information and materials, to-scale fetal models with removable babies, and attractive products to help share the pro-life message with those who visit our booth. In 2018, we took our booth to the Couple to Couple League Humanae Vitae 50th Anniversary Conference and the Archdiocese of Cincinnati Catholic Women’s Conference.

Fetal Model Gift Project
We offer individual schools, and other appropriate recipients, a fetal model set, free of charge. The set includes weighted models of developing babies in a box suitable for display. Students who see and hold these fetal models will have a visual knowledge of the miracle of human development before birth, which may affect future choices for life, as well as increase self-esteem as they learn the intricacies and order of their own beginnings.

Issues
The Cincinnati Right to Life Educational Foundation is known as an information resource, and all staff continue to research and provide information on a wide range of pro-life and bioethical topics and issues, as requested.

Students also sometimes request interviews for class projects, and Executive Director Emeritus Paula Westwood and Executive Director Meg Wittman provided information to several regarding the organization and movement as a whole.

Media Initiatives
Executive Director Meg Wittman continues a weekly pro-life news spot on the Son Rise Morning Show, Sacred Heart Radio/EWTN. She and Executive Director Emeritus Paula Westwood were also interviewed on various issues throughout the year by several media outlets.

Cincinnati Right to Life is a Sacred Heart Radio underwriter, which includes program advertising. A pro-life radio ad was also broadcast during the Christmas season on WMOH.

News Bulletin
The Educational Foundation news bulletin has been a foundational source for pro-life news and information for several decades in the Greater Cincinnati area and elsewhere. Volunteers and staff cover all bulletin mail processing and delivery to churches. 27,000 bulletins are printed per issue, with approximately half mailed to individuals and the other half delivered to churches for distribution.
Partnerships

When means permit, we provide funding support to other pro-life organizations and individuals, as well as organizational and publicity support. Executive Director, Meg Wittman continues to serve on the Cross the Bridge for Life steering committee. Cincinnati Right to Life also maintains relationships with area college student groups, and provides graphic arts support to Mary’s Mantle for Life, which conducts prayer vigils at Planned Parenthood.
