

Respecting Life in a Culture of Death: The Catholic response to some of life's crosses

Join Us
Tuesdays
7:00 - 8:00 PM
in Synod Hall

Our society is experiencing what Pope Saint John Paul the Great termed a “culture of death”. Being “pro-life” encompasses many things beyond abortion. This series will educate and equip the Body of Christ as they strive to respect all human life in their everyday encounters and struggles.

Tuesday, October 1 -
Euthanasia: Respecting Life until Natural Death

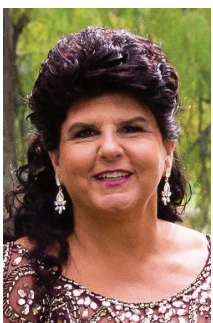

Reverend Raymond N. Enzweiler, PhD, Bel; former Vice Rector, Dean of Community Life and Director of Human Formation at the

Josephinum and current Pastor of St. Thomas Parish in Fort Thomas, KY

Tuesday, October 22 -
Death Penalty, Prison Life and Transitioning Back

Christine Marallen, Chief Strategy Officer at Damascus

Tuesday, October 8 -
Dignity of the Child and Grieving during Pregnancy Loss

Donna Murphy, Co-Founder, with husband Jim, of Heaven's Gain Ministry

Tuesday, October 29 -
Deaths of Despair: Addiction and Suicide

Deacon Michael Trimpe, Laboratory Director at Hamilton County Coroner and Deacon at St. Peter in Chains Cathedral

Tuesday, October 15 -
Choosing Life at All Times: The Anti-Life Messages behind Pornography and Sex Trafficking

Benjamin Klare, Coordinator of Archdiocesan Anti-Pornography Initiative

Sponsored by the Pro-Life Committee at Saint Peter in Chains Cathedral
325 W. 8th Street, Cincinnati

